High-Level Session on Greening Education Partnership

Her Royal Highness Princess Lalla Hasnaa

President of the Mohammed VI Foundation for Environmental protection

The Mohammed VI Foundation for Environmental Protection will participate to the special high-level session that is held as part of the first annual meeting of the Greening Education Partnership. It will bring together ministers of education and the environment, international organizations, and other key stakeholders, such as youth and civil society, to conduct in-depth reflection on ways to strengthen the role of education in the fight against climate change.

This 28th Conference of the Parties on climate change therefore constitutes an opportunity to affirm the importance of quality climate education as a response to the challenges of climate change and the needs for sustainable development.

OFFICIAL SIDE EVENT OF THE MOHAMMED VI FOUNDATION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION

Side event title: Tracking Africa's Climate Action Journey: Successes and Opportunities

ABOUT

The aim of this event is to support a forward looking and solutions-oriented approach to the Global Stocktake. We will address the African stocktake by changing the narrative for Africa. Africa needs adaptation and finance, but Africa can also be a continent of solutions. Therefore we want to showcase innovative, meaningful and impactful climate solutions led by local authorities, private sector, and civil society to build more resilient communities for the continent and the world. We will showcase African startups from the African Youth Climate Hub (AYCH) incubation program. We will also illustrate the action led by financial institutions as enablers to support and accelerate climate action and resilience.

Side event title: Implementation of the Decade of the Ocean in Africa

The UN Decade of Ocean Science for Sustainable Development (the Ocean Decade) provides a framework to convene diverse actors in the identification, implementation and resourcing of priority ocean science and knowledge initiatives.

The Ocean Decade Africa Roadmap identifies priorities specific to Africa and recognizes the need for a robust enabling environment to be built throughout the Ocean Decade to ensure that actors in Africa and other vulnerable regions have the skills and technology to generate and use ocean science and knowledge needs for climate action.

In its role as founding member of the ocean decade alliance and member of the African ocean decade task force, the Mohammed VI Foundation for Environmental Protection is organizing the side event entitled: "Implementing the Ocean Decade in Africa", which will highlight the African roadmap for the United Nations Ocean Decade 2021-2030 by addressing the challenges of supporting ocean science to combat climate change, with a particular focus on Africa.

The side event will also present international examples and experiences of innovative approaches that could be adapted and implemented by different partners in Africa in the context of the Ocean Decade.

A COP28 Oceans and Water side event

ABOUT

About the side event: DAFQA ('splash' in Arabic) is Community Jameel's ocean programme at COP28 in Dubai which explores the intersection of ocean health and climate change. To generate early momentum at COP28, Community Jameel will deliver a day of oceans and water programming at the Jameel Arts Centre on 2 December, bringing together partners and facilitating discussions to galvanise action and to ensure water and the ocean are prominent in the COP28 agenda.

Marking the UAE's presidency of COP28, this panel discussion will explore pressing ocean issues in the Arab region and how to tackle them effectively using a collective and unified approach. Co-chaired by the Khaled bin Sultan Living Oceans Foundation and the Mohammed VI Foundation for Environmental Protection, the panel will draw on learnings from the Ocean Decade Africa Roadmap and examine how to steer similar action in the Arab world.

in the Science for Climate Action

ABOUT

The objective of this event is for philanthropic institutions from the North and the South to exchange experiences on their actions and lines of work in ocean science for climate action.

Emphasis will be placed on how these organizations work in different national, regional and global contexts, to cooperate and link their strategic projects with the UN processes related to the UNFCCC, as well as with the public sector, the private sector and civil society, in order to ensure the necessary holistic perspective and contribute to climate action through the Ocean Decade.

It will discuss how the various philanthropic institutions can improve coordination and increase synergies of their initiatives at different scales to achieve greater collective impact.

The discussion at the event will lay the groundwork for the development of a statement of best practice in developing actions in the service of ocean science, which was identified as a priority action at the 3rd Foundations Dialogue in June 2023.
